The Pope's Prayer Intention for June

The Beauty of Marriage

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

Prayer to St. Joseph for Father's Day

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labour and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labour alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.
Pope John XXIII

An Exciting Fundraiser for St. Augustine's – June 5th

Tell me if anyone can relate to this: Can't see the back of your closet? Have shoes or handbags collecting dust in dark corners of your coat closet? Well, I have the solution for you!

Our church will be holding a fundraising clothing drive in association with Les Super Recycleurs. The more you bring in, the more money we raise for our church!

You may start bringing in items to Sunday Mass from May 22 up to June 5. Les Super Recycleurs will be arriving with a truck to pick up our items at Sunday Mass on June 5. Since this is an eco-friendly campaign, please avoid using plastic bags to collect your items. Try using a paper yard waste bag instead or even old pillowcases can do the job.

Lastly, there is a sign-up sheet in the narthex if case you need someone to come pick up your bags of items at your house or send me an e-mail at maureen_2807@hotmail.com. Don't be shy. We're happy to help.

So go start your spring cleaning and spread the news to your family and friends!

Prayer Leads to Compassion

Prayer and action can never be seen as contradictory or mutually exclusive. Prayer without action grows into powerless pietism, and action without prayer degenerates into questionable manipulation. If prayer leads us into deeper unity with the compassionate Christ, it will always give rise to concrete acts of service. And if concrete acts of service do indeed lead us to a deeper solidarity with the poor, the hungry, the sick, the dying, and the oppressed, they will always give rise to prayer. In prayer we meet Christ, and in him all human suffering. In service we meet people, and in them the suffering Christ.

Action with and for those who suffer is the concrete expression of a compassionate life and the final criterion of being a Christian. Such acts do not stand beside the moments of prayer and worship but are themselves such moments. Why? Because Jesus Christ, who did not cling to his divinity, but became as we are, can be found where there are hungry, thirsty, alienated, naked, sick, and imprisoned people. Precisely when we live in an ongoing conversation with Christ and allow the Spirit to guide our lives, we will recognize Christ in the poor, the oppressed, and the downtrodden and will hear his cry and respond to it wherever he is revealed. - Henri Nouwen

In Memoriam

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

If you know of the passing of parishioners or former parishioners please let us know at staugustine.bulletin@yahoo.com and Heidi Glaser for Sunday prayers.
