Spiritual Tourism Circuit

St Augustine of Canterbury is part of a new spiritual tourism circuit!

Tourisme Montérégie and the ATRSQ - Association du Tourisme Religieux et Spirituel du Quebec are proud to launch two new religious and spiritual tourism tours highlighting religious figures and heritage sites in the Montérégie region.

These tours complement the existing offer of the Sanctuaries of the St. Lawrence which since 2016, has offered a unique itinerary highlighting the cultural and spiritual heritage of seven shrines located along the St. Lawrence River, from Châteauguay to Varennes.

This project is the result of a yearlong collaboration between the main players in the tourism sector and representatives of the nine sites. Mary Clermont, Susan Leclair and Pamela Gunning have been representing St. Augustine since the start of the project in April 2022.

The two thematic tours include nine participating religious sites: the Sainte-Marguerite-d'Youville Shrine, Marie-Rose Centre, Saint-Antoine-de-Padoue Co-Cathedral, St. Augustine of Canterbury Church, St. Paul's Cathedral, and Saint-Hyacinthe-le-Confesseur Cathedral and its Mausoleum-columbarium, the Manoir d'Youville and the Acadian Church and Presbytery.

1) Heritage Sites Tour

The first tour of the religious heritage sites of the Montérégie region is divided into three one-day tours. It invites participants to discover history and culture through architectural jewels that are full of treasures from the past in various forms. St Augustine of Canterbury is part of this circuit.

2) Religious Figures Tour

The second, the Montérégie figures tour, is offered to groups in a two-day, one-night formula. It will allow visitors to discover two men and five women from the region who, each in their own way, contributed to the religious and social life of their time through the testimony of their lives. Both these tours will be starting in June 2023.

All the details of these tours can be found on the Tourisme Monteregie:

Pentecost Sunday May 28

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your Divine love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, & You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, instructed the hearts of the faithful, Grant, that by the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen. "Holy Spirit" is the proper name of the one whom we adore and glorify with the Father and the Son. The Church has received this name from the Lord. The term "Spirit", from the Hebrew ruah, means breath, air, wind. "Spirit" and "Holy" are divine attributes of the three divine persons. By joining the two terms, Scripture, liturgy, and theological language designate the inexpressible person of the Holy Spirit. Jesus calls him the "Paraclete," literally, "he who is called to one's side," advocatus. "Paraclete" is commonly translated by "consoler." The Lord also called the Holy Spirit "the Spirit of truth." Besides the proper name of "Holy Spirit," most frequently used in the Acts of the Apostles and in the Epistles, we also find in St. Paul the titles: the Spirit of the promise, the Spirit of adoption, the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of the Lord, and the Spirit of God.

Feast of Mary, Mother of the Church, May 29

Pope Francis, whose devotion to Mary is well known, on March 3, 2018, established a new feast for the Catholic Church devoted to Mary as the "Mother of the Church," to be celebrated by the universal Church on the Monday after Pentecost. The Vatican decree observes that the veneration of Mary as Mother of the Church has ancient roots in Catholic tradition, reaching back to St. Augustine and St. Leo the Great. The title, the document says, is rooted in New Testament accounts about Mary. "She became the tender Mother of the Church which Christ begot on the cross, handing on the Spirit," the decree said. "Christ, in turn, in the beloved disciple, chose all disciples as ministers of his love towards his Mother, entrusting her to them so that they might welcome her with filial affection." In 1964, Blessed Pope Paul VI formally declared Mary as the "Mother of the Church," and invited Catholics to invoke Mary's help under that title. O God, Father of mercies, whose Only Begotten Son, as he hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, his Mother, to be our Mother also, grant, we pray, that with her loving help your Church may be more fruitful day by day and, exulting in the holiness of her children, may draw to her embrace all the families of the peoples. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

In Memoriam

Frances Dagenais April 26 2023

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen
