Religious Heritage Days

St. Augustine's will be hosting an open house as part of the Religious Heritage Days event held every year in Quebec. It will be held on Saturday September 9th, 2023 from 2-4 pm. Refreshments will be served in the St. Augustine courtyard. This will be our 4th year participating in this event and is a wonderful opportunity to visit this Heritage site.

St. Augustine Spiritual Tourism

Are you expecting visitors from out of town this summer or fall? Have you ever considered inviting your friends and family to tour St Augustine church? Our 20 points of interest have been a hit with all who have taken the tour, including those who have attended our church for years. Friends and relatives who have attended other churches or visited St. Augustine for a mass will gain a deeper understanding of the unique features of our church and its surroundings. If you would like to organize or have a tour please contact Susan Leclair at 514-910-5245 or susan.leclair@yahoo.ca.

Heritage Project

In the spring we advised that we had made a request to the CPRQ (Conseil du Patrimoine Religieux du Quebec) for additional funding for window, door and woodwork repairs (based on recommendations by NBL Architects). To date, no decision has been taken regarding this approval. A follow-up has been sent to the CPRQ and we have not yet received a reply. We will give parishioners an update as soon as a decision is made.

A message from the Women's Guild:

We would like to ask any parishioners who will be canning or making preserves this year, to keep our Christmas bazaar in mind. It was a big hit last year and we would like to expand it this year. If you would like more info or need some jars, Please contact us at stawomensguild@gmail.com. Thank you

Les Super Recycleurs

Our clothing drive fundraiser held this spring in association with Les Super Recycleurs raised a profit of $140. Thank you to all those who donated items.

Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary August 15

"Today's liturgy sets before us the radiant icon of the Blessed Virgin who was taken up into heaven in the integrity of her body and soul. In the splendour of heavenly glory shines the One who, by reason of her humility, was made great in the sight of the Most High to the point that all generations call her blessed (cf. Lk 1:48). Now, as Queen, she sits beside her Son in the eternal happiness of paradise and looks upon her children from on high. With this consoling certainty, we turn to her and call on her for those who are her children: for the Church and for all humanity, so that everyone, by imitating her faithful following of Christ, may reach the definitive homeland of heaven. From her birth to her glorious Assumption, her life unfolded on a journey of faith, hope and charity. These virtues, which blossomed in a humble heart abandoned to God's will, are those adorning her precious, incorruptible crown as Queen. These are virtues which the Lord asks of all believers, if they are to share in his Mother's glory."

Pope St. John Paul II

In Memoriam

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

If you know of the passing of parishioners or former parishioners please let us know at staugustine.bulletin@yahoo.com and Heidi Glaser for Sunday prayers.
